MOLEMAN BURROWING ON

Radio Test Late Wednesday Fails to
Disclose Signs of Life—Several
Causes For It

(By United Press)

Cave City, Ky., Feb. 12—Official estimates today stated it would take a maximum of sixty hours to reach the level at which Floyd Collins lies.

H. T. Carmichael, general supervisor of operations issued the following official communique today:

"At 9 a. m. today the shaft had reached a depth of about 40 feet. Engineers calculated Collins is not more than 70 feet below the surface. Our normal average now is ten feet in twenty-four hours which should cut us at the seventy feet level six hours from now. If then would be necessary to bore a tunnel to Collins, whose position literally, from the shaft we believe we have fixed. If our drift fails to locate him, we will make drifts in all directions until he is found."

Then Carmichael added unofficially.

"All this is barring surprises. There are many fissures in the rocks. We might at any moment strike one which would lead us to Collins. Our shaft might strike the roof of the tunnel in which Collins lives, obviating the necessity of a side drift."

As a winter wind flecked snow across the opening of their shaft, diggers attacked this morning the last few feet of rock that separates them from Collins.

The moleman have burrowed to the limestone which forms the roof of Collins' rock box.

It may be minutes, it may be hours before their picks pierce that bottom crust and disclose to them their goal.

All preparations have been made quickly to clear out the debris, place Collins on a lift and deliver him to Dr. W. H. Hazlett, Chicago, who will—

But there they stop. Dr. Hazlett may give stimulants.

Or he may announce the man is dead.

Up until Wednesday workers knew Collins was alive, in his underground prison, hence they seek to rescue him. Now they do not know this.

Assurance that life still existed in the cavern prison was brought to them over the electric wires which illuminated a light bulb resting on Collins' chest.

After the first test was made to determine if Collins lived after the entrance to his prison was blocked by falling dirt and rock amplifiers was attached to this wire. Then the light was turned off at a portable electric plant which supplied its current.

Those who listened at the amplifiers magnified any slight touch on the wires, heard the globe being turned in its socket. This fumbling continued until they turned on the light again. Then it stopped. They repeated this operation several times, and each time the result was the same.

By this listeners knew Collins was alive and conscious. They had heard him try to restore light and warmth to his bed. Amplifiers which magnified sound even more were used. By this his heart beats through the light bulb were heard. The bulb was on Collins' chest.

The listeners heard it repeated rhythmically 20 to 24 times a minute. A few hours later they tried again and this time the rhythm had slowed to 12 to 14 times a minute.

Physicians were positive this rhythmic sound recorded Collins' breath. It slowed when he slept. It was a little faster than normal when he was awake because of his suffering and the confined place in which he lies.

GRAND JURY RECESSES, MAKES PARTIAL REPORT

Three Indictments Are Returned
Following Brief Investigation—To
Meet Again

TWO MEN HELD IN JAIL

The grand jury which went into session Wednesday morning, finished at noon today and recessed, making a partial report at this time, including three indictments.

The grand jurors recessed, and will meet again next week, or the following week, according to Gates Ketchum, prosecutor, who conducted the investigation.

No arrests were made today on the indictments returned and their nature was not disclosed. It was expected that two or the indictments involved prisoners in jail, who are awaiting trial on affidavits.

Those in jail are Paul Floyd, accused of issuing a fraudulent check, and Bert Wilson, charged with assault and battery with intent. If indictments were returned against them, they will probably be arraigned in court in a day or so to answer to the charges.

Several other matters are to be investigated before an adjournment is taken, according to the prosecutor, and witnesses for future hearings are to be summoned in a few days.

TRAFFIC BLOCKED BY SNOW ON MANY ROADS

Rushville and Most of Rush County
Escaped Heavy Snow Storm, Reports Indicate

MERCURY DROPS TO 18 ABOVE

Rushville and most of Rush county missed a bad snow storm Wednesday, according to reports of other nearby counties, where snow drifts blocked traffic on highways for hours.

In Rushville city the snow was very light Wednesday, but in Marion, Madison, Shelby and parts of Hancock county, the snow was several inches deep, and was drifted several feet in places by the strong wind.

These snow drifts were reported on the road between here and Indianapolis, in the vicinity of New Palestine, where the state highway was blocked for hours, and many machines became stranded, or had to turn back. Others that attempted to cut across to the National highway, faced the same trouble there, and machines had to fight the blizzard on that highway near Greendale.

The mercury during the night reached 18 degrees above zero for the coldest and held that level all night. The temperature climbed today and was above the 30 mark at noon. Indications for tonight are for fair weather in south, cloudy in north portion, with probably snow Friday in scattered areas. Warmer weather also is in sight for Friday.

CRUSHED UNDER TRAIN

Fort Wayne, Ind., Feb. 12—The body of Pearl Friend, 25, a car inspector, was found beneath the wheels of a freight car. No one witnessed the accident which caused his death.

Lincoln at Gettysburg

FOURSCORE and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war.

We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that the nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But, in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow this ground.

The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here.

It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced.

It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from those honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from this earth.

HEAVY LOSSES IN THREE TOWNSHIPS

Due to Reports Regarding Poultry
Fatalities, Expert Is Ordered Here
by Dr. R. C. Julien

SHOW NEED OF QUARANTINE

Dr. N. G. Wickwire, Federal Veterinarian, Gives Reasons for Egg Embargo—Urges Shells Be Burned

Reports have reached Dr. N. G. Wickwire, federal veterinarian assigned to Rush county during the quarantine on poultry and poultry products due to the European fowl pest, to the effect that there have been heavy losses in certain flocks of chickens in three different townships. As many as 200 chickens have been lost in one flock.

On account of this development, Dr. Wickwire notified Dr. R. C. Julien, state veterinarian, in charge of the survey being made in nine eastern Indiana counties, and he promised to send an expert on the disease to Rush county late today or Friday.

The conditions on farms where large losses have been reported, will be investigated. In the meantime, the report of these heavy losses emphasize the importance of using every method known to safeguard the poultry industry in Rush county.

People have been calling at the county agent's office by the scores inquiring about the restrictions of the quarantine. Dr. Wickwire is surrounded by a dozen or more poultry raisers most of the day. The question most frequently asked is, "Why can't we sell eggs?" In answer to this Dr. Wickwire today issued the following statement:

"European fowl pest is caused by a filterable virus. It invades all of the tissues of the fowls. The virus is present in the egg of a hen afflicted with fowl pest. It is also present on the outside of the shell. The virus is thrown off through the urine and feces and passes to the ground through the excreta being voided as the infected birds move about."

Shovels and Shovels of Basketball Dope Tonight

Plenty of basketball dope tonight! A unique feature is being tried out tonight, on the eve of "that battle of a century" between Connersville and Rushville. Ole Side Lights of the News-Examiner and Hittin' 'Em of the Republican, exchanged their columns today, even with the cuts that go at the top of them. These two columns today appear in these newspapers, word for word, and by reading them, the followers of the two teams can get an idea of what might be expected at that "battle of the century" Friday night.

GING HIGH SCHOOL GIRL IS CANDIDATE

NAOMI NASH

Naomi Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nash, has entered the race for representative from Rush county in the junior legislature, which convenes in Indianapolis, March 23. The Rush county convention to choose a representative will be held Saturday.

She is exceptionally well qualified for the position as she is an able speaker, an honor student, editor of the Ging school news, and president of a local scholarship fraternity, the Internos Latin club.

It will be noted from the above that the candidate ranks high in her school both from the standpoint of intellectual achievement and from that of popularity. She was the unanimous choice of those upon whom the duty fell of picking a candidate from the school.

Miss Nash is making the race up on a platform involving educational reform, farm marketing proposals and child labor reform. She believes that there is urgent need for educational reform in the interests of greater efficiency and economy, that the county unit proposal is unpopular and that the needs sought in that measure may be gained otherwise. She therefore advocates increased qualifications for township trustees, especially with reference to educational qualifications.

She sees one solution for the farmers' problems in a policy of cooperative marketing. She also believes that unregulated child labor is antagonistic to the best interests of our commonwealth and that the child industry must be safeguarded and given a chance.

FARMERS DISCUSS NEXT CORN SHOW

Tentative Dates are Considered and
Support of Boys' Corn Club Is Pledged

SEED TESTING IS TOPIC

Such a Large Variation That Farmers are Encouraged to Test at Least Part of Seed

Despite the unfavorable weather conditions six townships were represented at the corn meeting at the court house assembly room Wednesday afternoon and the idea of making the next Rush County Corn Show of more interest and value to the citizens of the county.

December 15, 16 and 17, 1925, was suggested as a tentative date for the show, instead of January of next year.

The men present pledged their support to make the Rush County Boys' Corn Club as far reaching and beneficial as possible. Leaders have been selected in practically every township and it has been requested that they have their enrollment in the hands of the county agent before Saturday evening. The men felt that more rapid and effective corn improvement would be promoted in this way than by any other policy.

The condition of Rush county seed corn was discussed and from the discussion it was evident that not all seed corn was sufficiently dry to withstand the severe weather during the Christmas holidays.

It was suggested that since there is such a wide variation in seed corn, farmers should be encouraged to test at least a part, if not all, of their seed corn before the rush of spring work.

Due to the variation, it was urged that each farmer before offering seed for sale, do a sufficient amount of testing so that he could give the buyer a guaranteed germination percentage. Farmers who are able to do this can obtain tests from the state chemist at small additional cost and advertise their seed in local and state newspapers.

The tests so far in the central testing plant at the county agent's office indicate that there are very few so-called dead ears. However, by the test the farmer is able to eliminate weak and diseased kernels which produce either barren stalks or a nubbin. This should not be construed to indicate, it was pointed out, that the necessity does not still exist for testing seed corn.

Paper can be obtained at the county agent's office at cost, which will permit farmers to make their own tests. Already many farmers in different parts of the county have taken advantage of this opportunity.

It was indicated that if a Rush county farmer has strong, disease-free seed and sowed a stalk every eighteen inches in the row, which produced a one pound ear, his yield would exceed 100 bushels per acre.

VERDICT FOR ORANGE PEOPLE

Edith E. and Demp C. Norris Win
Case in Fayette Court

The verdict in the case of Jacob Risch, guardian for Conrad Risch, against Edith E. and Demp C. Norris of near Orange, returned by a jury in the Fayette circuit court at Connersville Wednesday, was in favor of the defendants, the jurors in effect finding that Risch was of sound mind when he executed a real estate contract with the defendants.

The suit was to cancel the contract and recover a payment of $2,000, made to the defendants, the complaint alleging that Risch was not mentally sound when the contract was executed. The evidence showed that Risch had been in an insane hospital since the transaction but had since been released. John A. Tittsworth of this city was the attorney for the plaintiff.

HOUSE SUSTAINS RATE MAKING BODY

Defeats Chambers Senate Bill Abolishing
State Bureaus Which Fix
Insurance Rates

POWERFUL LOBBY, CHARGE

House Also Smothers Senate Auto
Banditry Death Penalty and Snuff
and Tobacco Measures

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 12—Riding down the protest of a militant minority, the house today killed the Chambers senate bill to abolish state insurance rates making bureaus.

A majority report of the insurance committee for indefinite postponement was adopted.

Representative Ridenour of Auburn signed a minority report recommending passage.

Charges of the use of a "slush fund" by lobbyists seeking to defeat the measure were made by Representative Kitch of Plymouth during debate on the bill.

"The most powerful lobby has been working against the bill that the present legislature has seen," Kitch said.

Its opponents have raised a large slush fund to defeat it." Kitch however did not know what use had been made of the "slush fund."

Representative Freeman of Kokomo defeated the action of the majority of the insurance committee in recommending indefinite postponement of the bill. He declared the committee had no knowledge of any slush fund and heeded attacks on the bill of its own volition without coercion in any law.

The senate bill to provide the death penalty for convicted automobile banditry was virtually killed when the committee report amending the bill to make penalty thirty years imprisonment, was adopted.

A similar bill introduced in the house was killed in the committee last week.

The house also killed the home senate bill to make the sale of snuff and tobacco to minors a misdemeanor.

The house and senate met in joint session at eleven o'clock for memorial services commemorating Abraham Lincoln's birthday. Governor Jackson presided at the session and Dr. William Lowe Bryan, president of Indiana University, delivered the memorial address.

Confronted with demands from department officials and institutional heads for big boosts in tentative budget figures, the senate finance and house ways and means committee to day carefully sifted all requests for additional funds.

The announced purpose of the committee in holding the joint meetings to review the budget is to limit state expenditures for the next two years to the $48,000,000 figure and at the same time meet the actual needs of all departments and institutions.

Already requests have been made before the committee for large increases over the figures set in the budget bill and numerous requests are yet to be heard.

Members of the committees were alarmed at the startling increase in the population of state correctional institutions when A. F. Miles, superintendent.

GRADES ANNOUNCED IN NOTEBOOK QUIZ

Results in Contest Conducted* in Township Schools to Stimulate
Music Memory Contest

MUSIC TOPICS ILLUSTRATED

Pupils used Pictures Cut from Magazines and Folders and Photos of Composers

Grades were announced today in the note book contest conducted in the schools of Rush county under the supervision of Miss Alice Piersol, in which 40 school children sent in their note books to be graded.

The work done by the school children is marvelous and shows considerable study. Of the list of 40 titles of the music, the pupils took each one separately and illustrated the topics with pictures cut out from magazines and other illustrated folders.

The pictures were to convey the idea as carried out in the title of the selection. The photos of the composers also were used by many of the school children, and several of them used their own art in compiling the note book.

Those in the seventh and eighth grades were as follows: first place, Beulah Phares of Manilla; Owen Stamm, second place, of Glenwood; Lillian Gabbard, third place, Gings.

The winners in the 5th and 6th grade class are as follows, first place, Blanche Pitts, Manilla; second, Emma Beaver, Glenwood; third Harold Kesler, Manilla.

The high school winners are: first William Elder, Rushville; second, Helen Kennedy, Gings and third, Mabel Wagoner, Homer. In this class it was pointed out that the second place winner really deserved first place, but touched only upon 25 titles, and the one given first place illustrated all 40 titles.

The plan was used to stimulate interest in Music memory work in the schools, according to Miss Piersol, and has nothing to do with the annual contest, excepting to accustom the pupils to the art of illustrating the pieces. There were 40 note books handed in from all over the county, and a list of 40 music titles were submitted. Some of the pupils used all of the titles, and others used from 25 on up to the 40.

A separate page was devoted to each music title, and each pupil then made a book out of his work, and the grades given was based on three points, originality, neatness and selection of material used for their illustrations.

The grades were based on three groups, for children in the 7th and 8th grades for those in the 5 and 6th grades and for those in high schools.

FLAG PRESENTED TO THE HIGH SCHOOL BY D. A. R.

Presentation Made by Mrs. W. H. Amos, Regent—Lesson From Lincoln's Life in Schools

NO GENERAL OBSERVANCE

Lessons from the life of Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday the nation observed today, were impressed upon the school children of Rushville today, a different program being arranged for each building by the principal.

A nine by twelve wool bunting flag to fly on the staff atop the Graham high school building, was presented to the high school by the Rushville chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, through the regent, Mrs. Willard H. Amos, this morning at assembly. E. B. Butler, principal, responded in behalf of the high school, thanking the patriotic society for the gift. Miss Margaret Winship read James Whitcomb Riley's "Old Glory" and the short program closed with the singing of patriotic music.

No special recognition was given Lincoln's birthday in the city, with the single exception of the bank's closing for the legal holiday.

Appointed Second Lieutenant Of the Purdue University Band

Mrs. Ed Beer has received word from her son, Wallace Beer, a student at Purdue University, stating that he has been appointed second lieutenant of the Purdue Band. Before Christmas he was appointed adjutant of the band, and now he has received his second promotion. However, he is filling both positions now. He also is a member of the Harlequin club orchestra of the university, playing first clarinet. It was also stated in Mr. Beer's letter, that Edward Sentman, formerly of this city, and who is attending the university, has also been given a place in the Harlequin orchestra. Both boys are members of the Theta Chi fraternity.

There will be a supper at the Wesley M. E. church hall tonight. Supper will be served, beginning at five o'clock. At eight o'clock there will be a debate resolved: "Which

Again—Do Not Expect Long Trading Allowances on Any Used Car When You Come to Buy a Chrysler

This statement of eight months ago is repeated in justice to Chrysler distributors and dealers, who cannot in fairness be expected to penalize themselves by making long allowances, merely because the Chrysler may have depreciated the value of other cars.

A car may be a very good car indeed and still it will lack the riding, driving, braking, accelerating, power and speed qualities which thrill the owner of a Chrysler Six.

As we said in June of last year, those qualities are so valuable and mean so much in efficiency and economy that you could well afford to discard the used car without compensation for the sake of the amazing activity of performance and the saving the Chrysler will bring you.

Even if another car originally cost you twice as much, the burden you escape when you acquire a Chrysler—the substitution of more agile and satisfying performance and the stoppage of waste—will more than compensate you.

Months ago we said that because of these unusual Chrysler qualities, the Chrysler was invading all markets and especially those of much higher price.

We also said that the enthusiasm of the public over the Chrysler was certain to affect all motor cars and ultimately all motor car design.

The change in (internal) design has not yet come. Until it does, there is no possibility for anyone who wants Chrysler results to make a comparison between the Chrysler and other cars, whether they be used or new.

It is all a question of whether you want the qualities which the Chrysler alone provides.

If you do, then it is perfectly clear that you cannot compare the value of another used car or any other new car with the value of the Chrysler.

Neither higher prices nor lower prices nor long allowances have anything to do with the fact that there is still only one Chrysler and that it delivers results which no other car delivers.

This is no reflection on any good car. It is simply a statement of facts which every Chrysler owner knows.

intendant of the reformatory at Pendleton, appeared before them to tell of overcrowded conditions at the reformatory.
Miles asked for an emergency appropriation of $27,000 to tide the institution over until the beginning of the next fiscal year in October.
He said the estimates for the 1923 appropriation were made on a basis of 900 inmates, while 1,338 prisoners are now confined in the reformatory.

There are still 180 reformatory prisoners in the state prison at Michigan City, he said, and the cell houses at Pendleton are so crowded that 400 prisoners are sleeping two in a cell.

Original plans involving an expenditure of $750,000 for completing the reformatory buildings can be revised to keep the cost within half a million dollars, according to Miles.

"If it were not too late, I would recommend that the state retain the old reformatory building at Jeffersonville," he said.

Representative Pittenger, chairman of the house ways and means committee, said that in supporting the new reformatory program two years ago he told the legislature provision for 1,200 prisoners would take care of the needs of the institution for one hundred years.

"When we see the population of our penal institutions increasing by leaps and bounds, it looks like there is a breakdown in the morale of the people," Pittenger commented.

An increase of $90,000 in the appropriation for the department of conservation was asked by Richard Lieber, director, to "let the department live."

The department asked for $218,900 in its request for appropriations and the budget committee whittled the request down to $112,200.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lazy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 50c.

The Lesson from Lincoln

There is a lesson that we all may well take to heart in the life of Abraham Lincoln.

Summed up in a few words, it can be expressed thus:

Whether you reach the top or not depends pretty much upon yourself! Lincoln was born of poor parents. Friends, social life, even ordinary opportunities were denied him. He knew only hard work under the worst conditions.

But it only spurred him on. He looked ahead—and dreamed.

There were no libraries for him to turn to. The benefits of our present day schooling were not his. So he borrowed what books he could and read and worked—and dreamed on!

Lincoln gave himself an education. As he read, in front of an open fireplace, his dreams grew bigger—but never were they dreams of personal power.

Time let him gradually find his place in the scheme of things. Dreams began to come true. But only after he had studied them out and worked them out for himself.

Lincoln, of course, did not know what his goal was going to be. He did not think of going "from prairie cabin to capitol." He only dreamed of bigger and better things—and then did them. The whole world benefited by the reward that came to him.

There is room, in this world, for more dreamers—who are big enough to MAKE their dreams come true!

Good Judgment

The ready and willing cooperation of Rush county chicken raisers with veterinarians in the campaign to protect the poultry industry against the European fowl pest speaks volumes for the good judgment of the farmers of Rush county.

It is natural to feel a certain resentment when the government tries to interfere with private business, and there might be people, in instances such as the present emergency, who would, due to misinformation, believe that some ulterior motive was underlying the poultry quarantine.

It is possible to imagine that there are those who believe that the restrictions on the transportation and sale of poultry and poultry products was inspired by someone who expected to profit through the market being suddenly glutted with poultry and eggs when the quarantine is raised.

It may be said to the credit of Rush county poultrymen that they have acted wisely and have shown splendid judgment in doing their part in the effort that is being made to save the poultry industry for Rush county.

Likewise, poultry raisers deserve credit for not attempting to violate the quarantine by attempting to sell chickens or eggs.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From Daily Republican Saturday, Feb. 12, 1910

That the day is not far distant when there will be a world court similar to the supreme court of a nation, at whose bar all difficulties among nations will be settled, was the prediction of Dean Rogers of the Cincinnati Law School in an address at the opening meeting and banquet of the Men's Brotherhood at the Main Street Christian church last night.

MAGIC OF A FACE"Kaintuck" Sees Lincoln's in London and Sets to Thinkin'

Editor's Note: Some years ago a replica of the St. Gaudens statue of Lincoln, erected in Lincoln Park, Chicago, was put up in London, near the Houses of Parliament.

THE FACE THAT MADE "KAIN-TUCK" THINK

By MILTON BRONNER
NEA Service Writer

London, Feb. 12—His names is Smith. I don't know his Christian name.

He came from Kentucky, where he was brought up in the fields—ploughin' and weedin'. And, in between times, he read geography. It planted the seed of crave for travel.

Smith's opportunity finally came. Stoker's jobs were advertised.

A chance to travel abroad—just for shoveling coal in ship furnaces. Sounded good to Smith, and he went to New York and joined a crew.

'Twas hard work—harder than he expected. But Smith didn't care.

Ten days in the stoke-hole and then Southampton With money in his pocket and adventure in his heart, he set forth, with his stoker mates.

These mates had nicknamed him "Kaintuck." And "Kaintuck," who had been reared in a bone-dry country, visited liquor emporiums and, for the first time in his life, tasted beer and "this here Scotch."

Sure, it had its effect and it's no wonder that a short time later he was on a train with his mates, bound for London.

More visits to liquor places—and then "Kaintuck" lost his friends in a fog.

The wee hours found "Kaintuck" leaning up against a fence.

Inside the fence stood a statue. "Kaintuck" glanced up at it. Then he stared—and blinked.

"Ole Abe Lincoln!"

"Kaintuck's" thoughts went into a whirl. A trip across the Atlantic? In a London town? Maybe a dream. A London Bobbie came along.

"What's that building?" asked "Kaintuck."

"That's where Parliament meets," came the reply.

John P. Frazee's class of girls of the Main Street Christian church Sunday school will give a valentine social in the basement of the church Tuesday evening.

Announcements have been received here of the wedding of J. Earl Stiers, formerly of this city, to Miss Carrie Brown of New Castle. The New Castle Courier had a lengthy item about the ceremony.

"And what city is this?"

"London."

"Mind if I look at that statue some more?"

"Help yourself, Yank."

Yank! That cop didn't know all "Kaintuck's" folks had been Confederate.

"Think o' findin' you in London, "Kaintuck" said, musingly, to the sculptured figure. "Good mawnin'."

My folks fit against you, but we all know now you wuz on the square. You kep' the country together, Abe. An' I ain't ashamed to talk to you, kinder man to man.

"You wuz common folks yourself. did your turn at splittin' wood and holdin' the plough—jes like me."

"But, why do you look at me so sad-like? Oh, I know. The booze! Don't blame ya! You had plenty of troubles on your shoulders, but I ain't ever heard you turned to booze to forget 'em. No. You kep' sober, and right on the job."

"Well, what's good enough for you is good enough for me."

"Well, so long, Abe. And thank ya. Did me no end of good gassin' with ya in this strange burg."

"I'm headin' back to your Kentucky and mine and start ploughin' again."

And "Kaintuck" did!

Child-birth

Here is a wonderful message to all expectant mothers!

When the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend," Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says:

"With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes. Use 'Mother's Friend' as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradford Regulator Co., R. A. 46, Atlanta, Ga., for a free illustrated book containing information every expectant mother should have. 'Mother's Friend' is sold by all drug stores—everywhere."

SIDE LIGHTS

THE DAY BEFORE

There goes that old line again, but that's just what it is—the day before another one of those "battles of the century"—you know we have at least two of 'em a year. Them roarin' Lions'll be here tomorrow night and from the snarling we hear over Rushville way, they're coming to chew us up. That isn't so good, but they'll try to do that very little thing, figuratively speakin'. Now we don't know for sure whether that's the right word or not, that figuratively stuff, but what we mean to say is they're goin' to do their damndest to put over a win. Of course we can't blame 'em and on the other hand they can't blame us if we try to do the same stunt.

Now that that's off our chest we'll start to hand out the old dope about the big tilt of the season from the point of interest or sentiment, at least.

STILL WHISTLIN'

Now, according to Hittin' 'em of the Rushville Republican, there's not much interest in Rushville over the game, it being taken for granted that the Lions will win. That's some more of that whistlin' in the graveyard stuff, if you ask us. Lots of interest over there all right, even if they don't show it and we'll miss our guess if they don't send a rip-roarin' delegation over here to try and help the Lions win.

There we go again, running to long paragraphs, and we know very well that they don't look good in a column. Hence this short one.

BIG "HOP" TOO

Before we go any further—and this ought to interest the Rushville folks—the Phi Delt's are giving a dance in their club rooms immediately after the big game. $1.10 pays the way and it'll be worth the price. The Auditorium orchestra and those boys sure put up the stuff, will furnish the inspiration for the tripping of the light fantastic, as they used to say years ago. Come one, come all.

NOW IS THE TIME TO JOIN THE BOOSTERS

NOTHING ELSE EXCEPT

And speakin' of boosters they're a live wire bunch we'll tell the world. That Franklin trip on four special I. & C. cars looks like a sure go as this is being written. With 200 rooters and a band, oh boy won't we strut our stuff at Franklin?

Have Your Tickets Ready!

Can't keep away from that Rushville game, though and we'll promise not to tell you this again, but they're gonna enforce the ticket rule to the letter tomorrow night. Rushville fans will use the north door and local fans will use the other doors and they must show their tickets. That may sound like it's too strict, but they're figuring on a real crowd and goodness knows basketball crowds are hard to handle.

NOT QUITE THAT OFTEN

A weekly occurrence: Rushville and Connersville are to have another "battle of the century" soon—Speakin' of Sports, Washington Herald.

Do You Remember?

Laying all jokes to I side as Ring Lardner would say, we can just about call 'em battles of the century at that. Member way back in the palmy days, guess that word's all right, anyway we mean back when "Jim" Geraghty run the baseball team in the Rush county metropolis and Jot Goar was the star twirler for the Connersville Grays they had some real battles and they've come down through the years.

AIN'T THIS SO?

Say one thing though without fear of contradiction and that is that there's a better feeling between the two owns now. Wouldn't want a nicer game than we had over at Push-town when the Spartans were trimmed earlier in the season and everybody kept in a good humor.

HARD TO LOSE, ETC. ETC BUT WHAT'S A LITTLE BASKETBALL GAME AFTER ALL IF THE SPORTSMANSHIP IS THERE?

WE'RE OUT TO WIN

Understand now Hittin' 'em we're not trying to crawlfish or anything of the sort for we're over here still calling for the ole fight and everything it takes to win and with anything like the breaks we're gonna send the Lions back to their own den on the short end of the score and we don't mean if.

MORE OLD TIME STUFF

This is not basketball but you might count it in order for we recalled the early days a paragraph or two previous, but do you remember when the baseball players rode out to the ball park on the old fashioned omnibuses and the kids would be lined up at the gate waiting to get to carry a glove or bat or anything else that would give 'em free admission. "Them days have gone forever."

AND IT'LL BE FRIDAY THE THIRTEENTH. BELIEVE WE USED THAT ONCE BEFORE BUT SAY THAT'S SOMETHING TO FALL BACK UPON. 'EH HITTIN' 'EM.

THEY'LL ALL BE HERE

From the way they're talkin' there'll be a record crowd on hands when the teams trot out on the floor. One thing sure we're not cramped for space like we used to be down in the old rink and it's a safe bet that all the Rushvillians will be taken care of in good shape.

Mustn't overlook that curtain raiser either. Strictly Rushville-Connersville affair tomorrow night, with the Junior Spartans tackling the Lion Cubs in the opener. Get there early and see it all.

CHANGING THE PACE

We'll lay off Rushville stuff for a while now and give some of the dope about the other fellows. That would be called a change of pace in baseball slang. Anyway let's mix 'em up a little and maybe, who knows we'll find out something.

HAVE RIGHT TO CROW

They're still crowing down at Washington about that scare they gave Vincennes and the columnists have had it soft for the last two or three days printing what the other fellows said about that 41 to 40 score. Well the Hatchets did do a nice job of it and we still say that breaks figure. The Alices must have got 'em judging from the accounts of the game.

NO TWO-TIMIN' GOES

Got to call off that idea of clipping some dope from the other exchanges. You know this column's running in the Rushville paper today and Hittin' 'Em might clip the same thing I do and you'd have to read it twice.

Anyway a contributor just kicked in with some good dope about Rushville and we're gonna hand it to you hot off the wires, so to speak. Here goes:

SO SAY WE ALL

Let's make it a twin win this week-end. We didn't quite do it before but oh boy didn't we come close and what a thrill we gave Newcastle—even with Keller out of the game. RUIN RUSHVILLE and FRUSTRATE FRANKLIN.

TAIL LIGHTS

They're There, Ole Top That name Tail Lights ought to sound familiar Hittin' 'Em. And we're telling you that the Tail

Lights over here are always behind the Spartans boostin' them to the limit.

WHOM DO YOU LIKE?

The Guy we like Is One who chimes The ole fight and We'll Tame Them Lions'. —G. G.

Here They Are Again

Can't keep those Tail Lights down. Here they come with another one. Listen to this: And now comes the greatest game of the season or "battle of the century" as E. I. says. We have waited all season for it, but the good things always come last. We can assure the fans that this game will be the best in a couple of years between Rushville and Connersville as Rushville has better opposition to offer than heretofore.

Well we might as well tell you what we think of the game and what we're gonna do. We can win this game with lots of fight and we're gonna win it. For we sure have got that old fight, gang and whatever it takes to put the old fight over we've got.

Come on fans, and we know you will, yell like you've never yelled before. Show Rushville how many red blooded fans Connersville has. Make 'em sit up and look on. Show 'em what a real fight is, Spartans. Remember Richmond beat 'em. Keep thinking about a win and we'll ruin Rushville.

Some little package if you ask us. Lots of the ole pep and everything in it too. Keep it up Tail Lights.

They'll Need Lots of Time

One more and we'll get ready to close up shop for today. Yes it's from the Tail Lights, for they're sure bearing down on this Rushville game—Listen: Just before that district tourney the Rushville paper told how the Lions' coach was training his lions for 15 minutes halves. The way it looked he must have cut a little short. Wonder if they think we're playing 15 minutes halves Friday night.

TAIL LIGHTS.

Real Job We'll Say

Now before we close we're gonna drop in a little dope about Franklin We've tried hard to stick to Rushville stuff, but those Blue Devils keep popping up in our minds and win or lose Friday night we've got a real job on our hands Saturday night and we'll be away from home Franklin's not to be sneezed at anywhere and it'll take the ole fight all the way. Let's get it now and keep it all the way through and give those Spartans the support they deserve.

ALL ABOARD!

And from what they tell us that special car stunt's goin' over big with a band and everything. That's pretty punk we think and expect you do to, but it sure does help a lot to have a big crowd on hand rootin'. Ed Shartans?

Knew we'd exceed the space limit again, but we'll try and talk the "works" of the back room out of it and slip in a few more about Rushville.

Waddy Say Hittin' 'Em

We're telling the big flat world though Hittin' 'Em that it's easier to talk about writing a column that's gonna appear in another paper than it is to write it.

But we guess we pulled it off and maybe they'll get a kick or two out of them. Here's hopin'.

Back home again now, folks, and we're just about ready to end the agony and pull the usual get-away lines. We know you're all familiar with 'em but we are ready to dodge anything you choose to throw, so the ole fight, gang; got your ticket to Franklin? join the boosters; don't forget to boost that grade tourney as we go along; did we forget anything? If so we'll tell you about it tomorrow.—In the meantime keep thinking about—

"TAMING THEM LIONS"

P. S.—Oh yes, then FINISH or FRUSTRATE FRANKLIN.

OH BOY, WHAT A ROAD THE LIONS HAVE TODAY! ALL PEP-PEP UP, READY FOR THAT BIG FIGHT OVER AT C'VILLE FRIDAY NIGHT. JUST THE PREY THEY HAVE BEEN WAITIN' FOR.

Coach Swain reported today that all players are anxious to hit the pace. Newbold, star forward, who was out of school two days on account of swollen glands, didn't develop the mumps—thnx goodness! Light practice on goal shooting will be held tonight. New plays have been worked out, and several surprises have been developed.

Ticket sale took a boost Wednesday. Indications are that the section reserved for Rushville will be well filled Friday night. Rushville fans are requested to remember that the north door is the entrance.

Maybe the end of the world was postponed for a week? It no doubt will be the end for someone.

Connersville's Valentine party will be held at Franklin Saturday night. Four traction car loads are expected to make the trip, and that is a long way to go after a funny valentine.

'NOTHER SURPRISE

Hoosier Courtship in the Richmond Palladium says: "Watch for Feb. 21. Something big on that date." Perhaps they are figuring on beating Connersville the night before.

SOMETHING THAT DIDN'T WORRY US:

All banks were closed today. Abe had a birthday.

MAIL 'EM TO HITTIN' 'EM.

THE WEATHER REPORT

For Eastern Indiana, Friday: regular March temperatures will prevail, exceptionally stormy. Ideal conditions for Roarin' Lions.

Friday the thirteenth is Hittin' 'ems lucky day! Got married on the 13th—and haven't lost a battle yet!

Headline in Shelbyville paper says CAMELS MAKE EFFORT TO REGAIN PRESTIGE

Webster says Prestige is an illusion, and an illusion is a false show. That's the first time we have ever found the truth in a Shelby paper.

Now Greensburg ought to enjoy the above. Yesterday we slapped Greensburg because they said some mighty bad things about those Tin Camels, and so that's what you call Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em.

A REGULAR ROMEO

Franklyn Miller, the war horse at back guard for the Lions, has McIntyre or Heath backed clear off the map. He not only is a basketball player, but he is a real actor, and demonstrated his ability this week in the Senior class play. All of those nice kisses he got from those girls, he ought to toss in four or five long goals tomorrow night.

McNamara is a real usher. He never missed a shot!

"Wolf" still stalks—headline in newspaper. Probably it is, TLW, broadcasting from C'ville.

Anderson high has won 15 straight games. Wonder who will be sweet sixteen Friday?

Side Lights of C'ville says that the usual "bear stories" are coming from Rushville that the team's in a slump and everything else is wrong. When those Lions hit over there, won't he think it is a slump?

'Nother Libel Suit Being Prepared

Down at Lyons, Ind., some place near Washington, they are calling their team, the roaring lions. They better make themselves scarce down that way next year when Rushville plays at Washington.

SOMETHING ELSE TO WORRY ABOUT

Paper down at Seymour has headline, "Saturday last day to escape arrests." Just a reminder to get Lizzie a new license.

YES, WHEN WAS IT?

Down at Shelbyville they have unearthed piles of cross-ties from the middle of Broadway street, which used to be a railroad. Probably they will find the basketball with which they won the state tournament, if they keep on looking.

Those cross ties will make good bon-fires for future celebrations, won't they Shelby? Stack 'em up on the public square. If you can't use 'em this year, they will burn good next year.

Won't those Connersville players be surprised when they see Rushville's new line-up of players. It's another one of those deep secrets, and so you will have to go to find out about it.

ALMOST FORGOT THE SLOGAN TODAY: NIK THOSE IKMIKS

And Side Lights says: Tame them Lions!

WOMAN FAINTED AT POINT OF GUN

Says a headline in Anderson Bulletin. It is generally the sound of that bloomin' gun at the end of the game that gives us heart failure.

Mike Arbuckle is a snappy player. Won't it look funny to see him play back guard? Well, you can't always tell.

SAFETY SAM SAYS:

Shootin' 'em in the News makes his pick on Monday. Uneasy lies the head of the team he picks. Remember it was Anderson last year?

OUR ANINIAS CLUB

Side Lights of Connersville told Hittin' 'em that Connersville was going to win, and if they didn't win, you would find him down in Kentucky locked inside of a cave.

Toss 'em in with field goals. They count two points.

Make the foul goals good. They count one point.

No quarantine on foul goals, but all other fowls had better stay home. Save your eggs, also.

Let's NIK those Ikmiiks, and then QUARANTINE THEM!

the egg. That is why the outside of a shell is contaminated. The inside or edible part of the egg is the life of the virus.

"We would urge everyone using eggs to burn the shells for ten days or two weeks. This reason for this is as follows:

"Sparrows are on nearly every farm. They fly from place to place in search of food. They could pick up a piece of egg shell contaminated with fowl pest a mile or more away and carry it back to your farm in their mouth, conclude they didn't want it and drop it on the ground. Your chickens would pick it up, eat it and they will have the fowl pest. For this reason we urge the burning of shells, and for this reason also, the embargo is placed on eggs."

NEARLY INSANE AT TIMES

Mrs. Saunders Tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieved Troubles of Change of Life

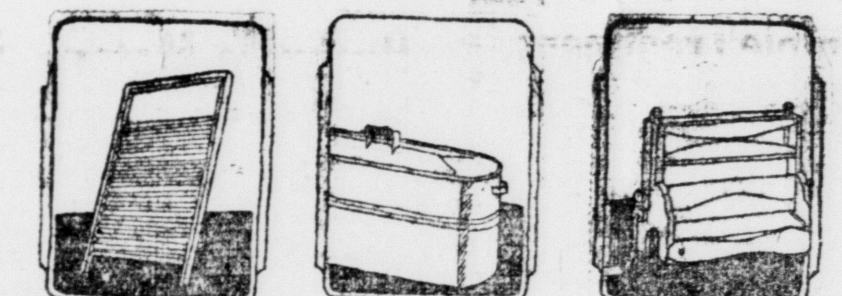

Knoxville, Tenn.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound while going through the Change of Life. I was very nervous, could not sleep and had melancholy spells. In fact, I was nearly insane at times and my memory was almost a blank. I was so weak I could not do my housework half of the time and suffered dreadfully with my back. My doctor said I would have to worry it out and I went through this for three years before I began taking the Vegetable Compound which I saw advertised. I think it was eight bottles that I took. It has been two years since I took any and I haven't had a doctor since for that trouble. I do all my washing and ironing and I have gained from 116 to 138 pounds. I feel so well I think I do not need any medicine now, but I advise all women who suffer physically and mentally as I did to give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. I hope it will do as much for them as it did for me."—Mrs. T. A. SAUNDERS, 711 E. Depot Street, Knoxville, Tenn.

GENERAL FIRE ALARM SOUNDED

A fire at the home of Edward T. O'Neil, 420 West Fifth street, was burning out Wednesday evening shortly after six o'clock, and for a time threatened to do damage. The flames were leaping high into the air.

The chemical truck from the fire station answered a telephone call, and shortly afterwards someone sounded the alarm from box 41, Sexton and Fifth streets, which caused the general fire alarm. On this alarm pumper company 2 made the run. The firemen remained at the residence until all danger of fire had passed, and no damage resulted.

Feet of Clay," Cecil B. DeMille's latest production for Paramount, which features Rod La Rocque, Vera Reynolds, Victor Varconi, Ricardo Cortez, Julia Faye, Theodore Kosloff and Robert Edison, opened a two days' run at the Princess theatre yesterday. The story is an adaptation of the immensely popular magazine serial by that name by Margaretta Tuttle. Beulah Marie Dix and Bertram Millhauser wrote the screen play.

Traveling in its locale between a brilliant winter resort, a poor Harlem flat and a gorgeous eye-filling home of wealth, "Feet of Clay" is one of the most entertaining productions DeMille has ever offered the picture public.

The story starts with a yachting party at Catalina Island. All sorts of beach novelties are worked into a series of colorful scenes which in costume combine bathing suits on lovely girls with the latest summer creations of the modiste and the tailor. The eye-filling piece de resistance is a race between twenty girls in jockey bathing suits on surfboards behind fast speedboats.

Capping the beach scenes is a luxurious sequence aboard the world's largest yacht.

Baby Peggy Coming to Castle

Is it wrong to scare a child with talk of the Bogey Man?

Parents seem to have a common habit of frightening their children into submission when threats and punishment fail to check childish naughtiness. It's "Johnny if you aren't good a great big policeman will get you—" or, "Peggy, come out of that pantry. I just saw a burglar in there—"

There is talk of the Bogey man and other mystic individuals who are supposed to have a penchant for devouring bad little boys and girls.

Wiseacres who analyse the psychology of things say that it is wrong to distort the childish mind with such suggestions and threats. Often their effects is such that it takes many years to overcome the false teaching of immaturity. Few

Night Coughing Stopped Quickly By Simple Treatment

Thousands who are troubled with persistent coughing at night, which by robbing them of valuable sleep weakens their systems and lays them open to dangerous infections, can quickly act to prevent this danger through a very simple treatment. People who have hardly been able to rest at all on account of coughing spells have found they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed often the first time they try it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring, and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is you usually sleep soundly the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, and bronchitis, and is wonderful for children's coughs and spasmodic croup—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

So-Called Nervous Dyspepsia

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 98.
By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

This is a condition of the stomach in which there is an alteration in the quantity or quality of the gastric juice and is accompanied by nervousness.

As a rule the onset is gradual and starts with distress in the region of the stomach, eructations of gas, pyrosis (heart burn), palpitation of the heart, constipation and coated tongue.

There may be severe stomach pains which in some cases are relieved by eating. There may be numbness of the extremities, coldness of the skin, flushes of the face and neck, and occasionally hiccuping.

In some cases mental symptoms develop, such as: fear, of being alone, mental depression, worry over trivial matters, etc.

If allowed to run on the outlook is not good, but our Chiropractic Adjustments remove the pressure on the nerves leading to the stomach. The flow of gastric juice becomes normal, digestion is restored and all symptoms disappear.

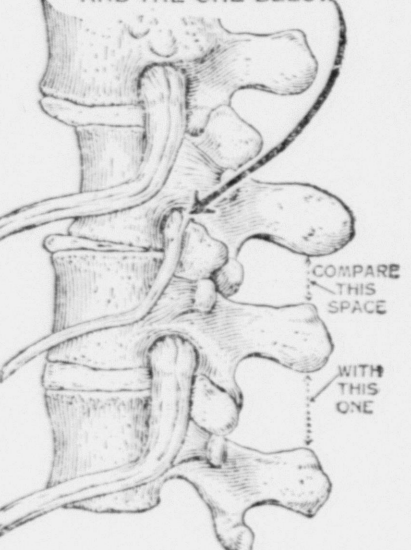

Dieting Failed But Chiropractic Succeeded

"For several years my son suffered from headaches and an undernourished condition. Physicians thought this was due to auto-intoxication and said the only relief obtainable would be through dieting. Under their treatment his condition gradually became worse. Reading an advertisement of Chiropractic, I became interested and decided to give it a trial. Under adjustments my boy has become normal, has gained several pounds and makes his grades in school. Without Chiropractic adjustments I believe he would have died."

LINCOLN'S SYMPATHY

"White House Bride" Tells How It Led to Her Marriage

Anderson, Ind., Feb. 12—The only living woman who was given away as a bride by Abraham Lincoln, and who ate her wedding supper as his guest in the executive mansion.

Mrs. Elizabeth Chandler, 82, of this county seat town, proudly boasts that honor.

Her story portrays the big-heartedness, kindness and sympathy for others in the life of Lincoln.

'Twas away back in 1862 that James Henry Chandler and his bride-to-be eloped from their homes near Mt. Sidney, Va., and went to Harper's Ferry to be married.

Trouble at this town prevented their entrance and they took the stage to Washington.

"We were just a couple of green Virginians," explains Mrs. Chandler "and we knew no better than to go to the White House to get married."

"We explained the situation to a doorman and he took us to the president's office."

"What do you children want?" Lincoln asked us. We told him and he sent for a Baptist minister. After the ceremony President Lincoln laughingly called my attention to the fact that it was customary for the minister to kiss the bride. The minister did!

"I was rather hoping the president would, too. But he didn't!"

"After the wedding Lincoln insisted we stay all night. I was taken to one room and my husband to another."

"In a short time we discovered that a party was scheduled for the White House that evening and when the guests arrived news of our wedding spread."

"They served a midnight supper in our honor."

In the early part of the war Chandler joined the southern forces.

In a short time, however, he surrendered and asked permission to fight in Lincoln's army.

This was granted and Mrs. Chandler did not hear from him for five years. The sentiment against a man who dared fight against his own family eventually died down and he returned home.

His "White House" bride was waiting for him.

MRS. ELIZABETH CHANDLER

The Chandlers moved to Indiana soon after and reared a family of four.

Chandler died some 25 years ago and his widow is supported by a government pension.

In the pension record is found what probably is the only official record of the Chandler wedding in the White House.

LITTLE FLATROCK

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norris attended the funeral of George Myers of Cleveland, Ohio, which was held in Indianapolis Monday.

William Wilkinson, who was seriously ill last week at the home of his cousin in Liberty with appendicitis, is much improved.

Richard Norris is ill with the mumps this week.

The Rev. D. E. Walker of Rushville was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morris Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Inlow of

Manilla visited Mr. and Mrs. John Dewester Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morris and family attended the play at Orange Saturday night.

Dr. Fred Cati is busy in Noble township inspecting the poultry flocks, but thus far has not found any cases of the fowl pest.

Miss Florence York entertained the Girl's Circle at her home Saturday afternoon. The program was in charge of Miss Mary Heaton. After the program light refreshments were served.

The Mission Band met in the church basement Sunday morning in charge of Mrs. Laverne Dunn and Mrs. John Murphy.

The Rev. Mr. Law of the Orange Christian church, together with Coleman Phillips, Roland and Lowell Krammes, met the officers of the Christian Endeavor society of this place at the church Sunday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting was to formulate plans toward organizing a Young People's Union of the Endeavor and Epworth League societies of the neighboring churches.

There are only four at present, Laurel, Orange Glenwood and Little Flat Rock, but it is hoped that other churches will join in the near future. It is to this end and also to promote Christian fellowship, love and service, a spirit of neighborliness, between the societies, that the union is being advocated. If successful, which it is hoped it will be, there will be two conferences a year, one in the spring and one in the fall, at which time there will be state workers in attendance whose messages will give inspiration, help and a larger vision of increased usefulness in the lives of the young people.

Alton Wilson was very pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when about forty of his friends gathered at his home, south of New Salem, honoring his eighteenth birthday. The evening was spent in contests and playing games after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Wilson was assisted by the Misses Thelma Williams and Esther Geise as hostesses.

The Ladies of St. Paul's M. E. church will hold a rummage sale Saturday at the Ford building in West First street. The sale will begin at 8 a. m.

MAXIMUM OF SIXTY HOURS REQUIRED TO REACH COLLINS

Barring Surprises Entombed Man
Can Not be Brought From Cave

ESTIMATE BY SUPERVISOR

H. T. Carmichael Says, However,
That Fissure Leading to Collins
Might be Hit Any Time

MOLEMAN BURROWING ON

Radio Test Late Wednesday Fails to
Disclose Signs of Life—Several
Causes For It

(By United Press)

Cave City, Ky., Feb. 12—Official estimates today stated it would take a maximum of sixty hours to reach the level at which Floyd Collins lies.

H. T. Carmichael, general supervisor of operations issued the following official communique today:

"At 9 a. m. today the shaft had reached a depth of about 40 feet. Engineers calculated Collins is not more than 70 feet below the surface. Our normal average now is ten feet in twenty-four hours which should put us at the seventy feet level sixty hours from now. It then would be necessary to bore a tunnel to Collins, whose position literally, from the shaft we believe we have fixed. If our drift fails to locate him, we will make drifts in all directions until he is found."

Then Carmichael added unofficially:

"All this is barring surprises. There are many fissures in the rocks. We might at any moment strike one which would lead us to Collins. Our shaft might strike the roof of the tunnel in which Collins lies, obviating the necessity of a side drift."

As a winter wind flecked snow across the opening of their shaft, diggers attacked this morning the last few feet of rock that separates them from Collins.

The moleman have burrowed to the limestone which forms the roof of Collins's rock box.

It may be minutes, it may be hours before their picks pierce that bottom crust and disclose to them their goal.

All preparations have been made quickly to clear out the debris, place Collins on a lift and deliver him to Dr. W. H. Hazlett, Chicago, who will—

But there they stop. Dr. Hazlett may give stimulants.

Or he may announce the man is dead.

Up until Wednesday workers knew Collins was alive, in his underground prison, hence they seek to rescue him. Now they do not know this.

Assurance that life still existed in the cavern prison was brought to them over the electric wires which illuminated a light bulb resting on Collins' chest.

After the first test was made to determine if Collins lived after the entrance to his prison was blocked by falling dirt and rock amplifiers was attached to this wire. Then the light was turned off at a portable electric plant which supplied its current.

Those who listened at the amplifiers magnified any slight touch on the wires, heard the globe being turned in its socket. This frizzling continued until they turned on the light again. Then it stopped. They repeated this operation several times and each time the result was the same.

By this listeners knew Collins was alive and conscious. They had heard him try to restore light and warmth to his feet. Amplifiers which magnified sound even more were used. By this his heart beats through the light bulb were heard. The bulb was on Collins' chest.

The listeners heard it repeated rhythmically 20 to 24 times a minute. A few hours later they tried again and this time the rhythm had slowed to 12 to 14 times a minute.

By this doctors told also that Collins was not suffering from pneumonia. A victim of this disease breathes 40 times a minute, they said. So the workers knew Collins lived and hoped. That test was repeated yesterday. When late yesterday the workers tried once more to reassure themselves they found the current was not being drawn from the supply base any more.

Three things might have caused this:

The wire may have been broken by falling stone. The globe may have been broken or jarred loose in its socket. The globe may have burned out.

GRAND JURY RECESSES, MAKES PARTIAL REPORT

Three Indictments Are Returned
Following Brief Investigation—To
Meet Again

TWO MEN HELD IN JAIL

The grand jury which went into session Wednesday morning, finished at noon today and recessed, making a partial report at this time, including three indictments.

The grand jurors recessed, and will meet again next week, or the following week, according to Gates Ketchum, prosecutor, who conducted the investigation.

No arrests were made today on the indictments returned and their nature was not disclosed. It was expected that two or the indictments involved prisoners in jail, who are awaiting trial on affidavits.

Those in jail are Paul Floyd, accused of issuing a fraudulent check, and Bert Wilson, charged with assault and battery with intent. If indictments were returned against them, they will probably be arraigned in court in a day or so to answer to the charges.

Several other matters are to be investigated before an adjournment is taken, according to the prosecutor, and witnesses for future hearings are to be summoned in a few days.

TRAFFIC BLOCKED BY SNOW ON MANY ROADS

Rushville and Most of Rush County
Escaped Heavy Snow Storm, Reports Indicate

MERCURY DROPS TO 18 ABOVE

Rushville and most of Rush county missed a bad snow storm Wednesday, according to reports of other nearby counties, where snow drifts blocked traffic on highways, for hours.

In Rushville city the snow was very light Wednesday, but in Marion, Madison, Shelby and parts of Hancock county, the snow was several inches deep, and was drifted several feet in places by the strong wind.

These snow drifts were reported on the road between here and Indianapolis, in the vicinity of New Palestine, where the state highway was blocked for hours, and many machines became stranded, or had to turn back. Others that attempted to cut across to the National highway, faced the same trouble there, and machines had to fight the blizzard on that highway near Greendale.

The mercury during the night reached 18 degrees above zero for the coldest and held that level all night. The temperature climbed today and was above the 30 mark at noon. Indications for tonight are for fair weather in south, cloudy in north portion, with probably snow Friday in scattered areas. Warmer weather also is in sight for Friday.

CRUSHED UNDER TRAIN

Fort Wayne, Ind., Feb. 12—The body of Pearl Friend, 25, a car inspector, was found beneath the wheels of a freight car. No one witnessed the accident which caused his death.

Lincoln at Gettysburg

FOURSCORE and seven years ago our fathers brought forth on this continent, a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battlefield of that war.

We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that the nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But, in a larger sense, we cannot dedicate—we cannot consecrate—we cannot hallow this ground.

The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here.

It is for us the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced.

It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that from those honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion—that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain—that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom—and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from this earth.

HEAVY LOSSES IN THREE TOWNSHIPS

Due to Reports Regarding Poultry
Fatalities, Expert is Ordered Here
by Dr. R. C. Julien

SHOW NEED OF QUARANTINE

Dr. N. G. Wickwire, Federal Veterinarian, Gives Reasons for Egg Embargo—Urges Shells be Burned

Reports have reached Dr. N. G. Wickwire, federal veterinarian assigned to Rush county during the quarantine on poultry and poultry products due to the European fowl pest, to the effect that there have been heavy losses in certain flocks of chickens in three different townships. As many as 200 chickens have been lost in one flock.

On account of this development, Dr. Wickwire notified Dr. R. C. Julien, state veterinarian, in charge of the survey being made in nine eastern Indiana counties, and he promised to send an expert on the disease to Rush county late today or Friday.

The conditions on farms where large losses have been reported, will be investigated. In the meantime, the report of these heavy losses emphasize the importance of using every method known to safeguard the poultry industry in Rush county.

People have been calling at the county agent's office by the scores mourning about the restrictions of the quarantine. Dr. Wickwire is surrounded by a dozen or more poultry raisers most of the day. The question most frequently asked is, "Why can't we sell eggs?" In answer to this Dr. Wickwire today issued the following statement:

"European fowl pest is caused by a filterable virus. It invades all of the tissues of the fowls. The virus is present in the eggs of a hen afflicted with fowl pest. It is also present on the outside of the shell. The virus is thrown off through the urine and feces and passes to the ground through the eggs being opening as

NAOMI NASH

Naomi Nash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nash, has entered the race for representative from Rush county in the junior legislature, which convenes in Indianapolis, March 23. The Rush county convention to choose a representative will be held Saturday.

She is exceptionally well qualified for the position as she is an able speaker, an honor student, editor of the Ging school news, and president of a local scholarship fraternity, the Internos Latin club.

It will be noted from the above that the candidate ranks high in her school both from the standpoint of intellectual achievement and from that of popularity. She was the unanimous choice of those upon whom the duty fell of picking a candidate from the school.

Miss Nash is making the race upon a platform involving educational reform, farm marketing proposals and child labor reform. She believes that there is urgent need for educational reform in the interests of greater efficiency and economy, that the county unit proposal is unpopular and that the needs sought in that measure may be gained otherwise. She therefore advocates increased qualifications for township trustees, especially with reference to educational qualifications.

She sees one solution for the farmers' problems in a policy of co-operative marketing. She also believes that unregulated child labor is antagonistic to the best interests of our commonwealth and that the child industry must be safeguarded and given a chance.

FARMERS DISCUSS NEXT CORN SHOW

Tentative Dates are Considered and
Support of Boys' Corn Club is Pledged

SEED TESTING IS TOPIC

Such a Large Variation That Farmers
are Encouraged to Test at Least Part of Seed

Despite the unfavorable weather conditions six townships were represented at the corn meeting at the county house assembly room Wednesday afternoon and the idea of making the next Rush County Corn Show of more interest and value to the citizens of the county.

December 15, 16 and 17, 1925, was suggested as a tentative date for the show, instead of January of next year.

The men present pledged their support to make the Rush County Boys' Corn Club as far reaching and beneficial as possible. Leaders have been selected in practically every township and it has been requested that they have their enrollment in the hands of the county agent before Saturday evening. The men felt that more rapid and effective corn improvement would be promoted in this way than by any other policy.

The condition of Rush county seed corn was discussed and from the discussion it was evident that not all seed corn was sufficiently dry to withstand the severe weather during the Christmas holidays.

It was suggested that since there is such a wide variation in seed corn, farmers should be encouraged to test at least a part, if not all, of their seed corn before the rush of spring work.

Due to the variation, it was urged that each farmer before offering seed for sale, do a sufficient amount of testing so that he could give the buyer a guaranteed germination percentage. Farmers who are able to do this can obtain taxes from the state chemist at small additional cost and advertise their seed in local and state newspapers.

The tests so far in the central testing plant at the county agent's office indicate that there are very few so-called dead ears. However, by the test the farmer is able to eliminate weak and diseased kernels which produce either barren stalks or a stubbin. This should not be construed to indicate, it was pointed out, that the necessity does not still exist for testing seed corn.

Paper can be obtained at the county agent's office at cost, which will permit farmers to make their own tests. Already many farmers in different parts of the county have taken advantage of this opportunity.

It was indicated that if a Rush county farmer has strong disease-free seed and secured a stalk every eighteen inches in the row, which produced a one pound ear, his yield would exceed 100 bushels per acre.

VERDICT FOR ORANGE PEOPLE

Edith E. and Demp C. Norris Win
Case in Fayette Court

The verdict in the case of Jacob Risch, guardian for Conrad Rauch, against Edith E. and Demp C. Norris of near Orange, returned by a jury in the Fayette circuit court at Connersville Wednesday, was in favor of the defendants, the jurors in effect finding that Rauch was of sound mind when he executed a real estate contract with the defendants.

The suit was to cancel the contract and recover a payment of $2,000, made to the defendants, the complaint alleging that Rauch was not mentally sound when the contract was executed. The evidence showed that Rauch had been in an insane hospital since the transaction but had since been released. John A. Tittsworth of this city was the attorney for the plaintiff.

HOUSE SUSTAINS RATE MAKING BODY

Defeats Chambers Senate Bill Abolishing
State Bureaus Which Fix
Insurance Rates

POWERFUL LOBBY, CHARGE

House Also Smothers Senate Auto
Banditry Death Penalty and Snuff
and Tobacco Measures

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 12—Riding down the protest of a militant minority, the house today killed the Chambers senate bill to abolish state insurance rates making bureaus.

A majority report of the insurance committee for indefinite postponement was adopted.

Representative Ridenour of Auburn signed a minority report recommending passage.

Charges of the use of a "slush fund" by lobbyists seeking to defeat the measure were made by Representative Kitch of Plymouth during debate on the bill.

"The most powerful lobby has been working against the bill that the present legislature has seen," Kitch said.

Its opponents have raised a large slush fund to defeat it."

Kitch however did not know what use had been made of the "slush fund."

Representative Freeman of Kokomo defeated the action of the majority of the insurance committee in recommending indefinite postponement of the bill. He declared the committee had no knowledge of any slush fund and heeded attacks on the bill of its own volition without coercion in any law.

The senate bill to provide the death penalty for convicted automobile banditry was virtually killed when the committee report amending the bill to make penalty thirty years imprisonment, was adopted.

A similar bill introduced in the house was killed in the committee last week.

The house also killed the home senate bill to make the sale of snuff and tobacco to minors a misdemeanor.

The house and senate met in joint session at eleven o'clock for memorial services commemorating Abraham Lincoln's birthday. Governor Jackson presided at the session and Dr. William Lowe Bryan, president of Indiana University, delivered the memorial address.

Confronted with demands from department officials and institutional heads for big boosts in tentative budget figures, the senate finance and house ways and means committee to day carefully sifted all requests for additional funds.

The announced purpose of the committee in holding the joint meetings to review the budget is to limit state expenditures for the next two years to the $48,000,000 figure and at the same time meet the actual needs of all departments and institutions.

Already requests have been made before the committee for large increases over the figures set in the budget bill and numerous requests are yet to be heard.

Members of the committees were alarmed at the startling increase in the population of state correctional institutions when A. F. Miles, superintendent, was heard.

GRADES ANNOUNCED IN NOTEBOOK QUIZ

Results in Contest Conducted in Township Schools to Stimulate
Music Memory Contest

MUSIC TOPICS ILLUSTRATED

Pupils used Pictures Cut from Magazines and Folders and Photos of Composers

Grades were announced today in the note book contest conducted in the schools of Rush county under the supervision of Miss Alice Piersol, in which 40 school children sent in their note books to be graded.

The work done by the school children is marvelous and shows considerable study. Of the list of 40 titles of the music, the pupils took each one separately and illustrated the topics with pictures cut out from magazines and other illustrated folders.

The pictures were to convey the idea as carried out in the title of the selection. The photos of the composers also were used by many of the school children, and several of them used their own art in compiling the note book.

Those in the seventh and eighth grades were as follows: first place, Beulah Phares of Manilla; Owen Stamm, second place, of Glenwood; Lillian Gabbard, third place, Gings.

The winners in the 5th and 6th grade class are as follows: first place, Blanche Pitts, Manilla; second, Emma Beaver, Glenwood; third, Harold Kesler, Manilla.

The high school winners are: first William Elder, Rushville; second, Helen Kennedy, Gings and third, Mabel Wagoner, Homer. In this class it was pointed out that the second place winner really deserved first place, but touched only upon 25 titles, and the one given first place illustrated all 40 titles.

The plan was used to stimulate interest in music memory work in the schools, according to Miss Piersol, and has nothing to do with the annual contest, excepting to accustom the pupils to the art of illustrating the pieces. There were 40 note books handed in from all over the county, and a list of 40 music titles were submitted. Some of the pupils used all of the titles, and others used from 25 on up to the 40.

A separate page was devoted to each music title, and each pupil then made a book out of his work, and the grades given was based on three points, originality, neatness and selection of material used for their illustrations.

The grades were based on three groups, for children in the 7th and 8th grades for those in the 5 and 6th grades and for those in high schools

FLAG PRESENTED TO THE HIGH SCHOOL BY D. A. R.

Presentation Made by Mrs. W. H. Amos, Regent—Lesson From Lincoln's Life in Schools

NO GENERAL OBSERVANCE

Lessons from the life of Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday the nation observed today, were impressed upon the school children of Rushville today, a different program being arranged for each building by the principal.

A nine by twelve wool hunting flag to fly on the staff atop the Graham high school building, was presented to the high school by the Rushville chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, through the regent, Mrs. Willard H. Amos, this morning at assembly. E. B. Butler, principal, responded in behalf of the high school, thanking the patriotic society for the gift. Miss Margaret Winslow read James Whitcomb Riley's "Old Glory" and the short program closed with the singing of patriotic music.

No special recognition was given Lincoln's birthday in the city, with the single exception of the bank's closing for the legal holiday.

Appointed Second Lieutenant Of the Purdue University Band

Mrs. Ed Beer has received word from her son, Wallace Beer, a student at Purdue University, stating that he has been appointed second lieutenant of the Purdue Band. Before Christmas he was appointed adjutant of the band, and now he has received his second promotion. However, he is filling both positions now. He also is a member of the Harlequin club orchestra of the university, playing first clarinet. It was also stated in Mr. Beer's letter, that Edward Sentman, formerly of this city, and who is attending the university, has also been given a place in the Harlequin orchestra. Both boys are members of the Theta Chi fraternity.

There will be a supper at the Wesley M. E. church hall tonight. Supper will be served, beginning at five o'clock. At eight o'clock there will be a debate resolved: "Which is greater, Abraham Lincoln or Washington?" The affirmative will be Harry Wils and Edwin Bean and the negative will be Roy Wickliff and Robert Bradley.

Again—Do Not Expect Long Trading Allowances on Any Used Car When You Come to Buy a Chrysler

This statement of eight months ago is repeated in justice to Chrysler distributors and dealers, who cannot in fairness be expected to penalize themselves by making long allowances, merely because the Chrysler may have depreciated the value of other cars.

A car may be a very good car indeed and still it will lack the riding, driving, braking, accelerating, power and speed qualities which thrill the owner of a Chrysler Six.

As we said in June of last year, those qualities are so valuable and mean so much in efficiency and economy that you could well afford to discard the used car without compensation for the sake of the amazing activity of performance and the saving the Chrysler will bring you.

Even if another car originally cost you twice as much, the burden you escape when you acquire a Chrysler—the substitution of more agile and satisfying performance and the stoppage of waste—will more than compensate you.

Months ago we said that because of these unusual Chrysler qualities, the Chrysler was invading all markets and especially those of much higher price.

We also said that the enthusiasm of the public over the Chrysler was certain to affect all motor cars and ultimately all motor car design.

The change in (internal) design has not yet come. Until it does, there is no possibility for anyone who wants Chrysler results to make a comparison between the Chrysler and other cars, whether they be used or new.

It is all a question of whether you want the qualities which the Chrysler alone provides.

If you do, then it is perfectly clear that you cannot compare the value of another used car or any other new car with the value of the Chrysler.

Neither higher prices nor lower prices nor long allowances have anything to do with the fact that there is still only one Chrysler and that it delivers results which no other car delivers.

This is no reflection on any good car. It is simply a statement of facts which every Chrysler owner knows.

intendent of the reformatory at Pendleton, appeared before them to tell of overcrowded conditions at the reformatory.

Miles asked for an emergency appropriation of $27,000 to tide the institution over until the beginning of the next fiscal year in October.

He said the estimates for the 1923 appropriation were made on a basis of 990 inmates, while 1,338 prisoners are now confined in the reformatory.

There are still 180 reformatory prisoners in the state prison at Michigan City, he said, and the cell houses at Pendleton are so crowded that 400 prisoners are sleeping two in a cell.

Original plans involving an expenditure of $750,000 for completing the reformatory buildings can be revised to keep the cost within half a million dollars, according to Miles.

"If it were not too late, I would recommend that the state retain the old reformatory building at Jeffersonville," he said.

Representative Pittenger, chairman of the house ways and means committee, said that in supporting the new reformatory program two years ago he told the legislature provision for 1,200 prisoners would "take care of the needs of the institution for one hundred years."

"When we see the population of our penal institutions increasing by leaps and bounds, it looks like there is a breakdown in the morale of the people," Pittenger commented.

An increase of $90,000 in the appropriation for the department of conservation was asked by Richard Lieber, director, to "let the department live."

The department asked for $218,900 in its request for appropriations and the budget committee whittled the request down to $112,200.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

BIBLE THOUGHT

FOR TODAY

God Cares for his Own:

And they shall be mine, saith

the Lord of hosts, in that day

when I make up my jewels; and

I will spare them, as a man

spareth his own son that serveth him. Malachi 3:17.

Prayer:—We rejoice, dear

Lord, to know that thou dost keep us precious in thy sight.

The Lesson from Lincoln

There is a lesson that we all may well take to heart in the life of Abraham Lincoln.

Summed up in a few words, it can be expressed thus:

Whether you reach the top or not depends pretty much upon yourself!

Lincoln was born of poor parents.

Friends, social life, even ordinary opportunities were denied him. He knew only hard work under the worst conditions.

But it only spurred him on. He looked ahead—and dreamed.

There were no libraries for him to turn to. The benefits of our present day schooling were not his. So he borrowed what books he could and read and worked—and dreamed on!

Lincoln gave himself an education. As he read, in front of an open fireplace, his dreams grew bigger

—but never were they dreams of personal power.

Time let him gradually find his place in the scheme of things.

Dreams began to come true. But only after he had studied them out and worked them out for himself.

Lincoln, of course, did not know what his goal was going to be. He did not think of going "from prairie cabin to capital." He only dreamed of bigger and better things—and then did them. The whole world benefited by the reward that came to him.

There is room, in this world, for more dreamers—who are big enough to MAKE their dreams come true!

Good Judgment

The ready and willing cooperation of Rush county chicken raisers with veterinarians in the campaign to protect the poultry industry against the European fowl pest speaks volumes for the good judgment of the farmers of Rush county.

It is natural to feel a certain resentment when the government tries to interfere with private business, and there might be people, in instances such as the present emergency, who would, due to misinformation, believe that some ulterior motive was underlying the poultry quarantine.

It is possible to imagine that there are those who would believe that the restrictions on the transportation and sale of poultry and poultry products was inspired by someone who expected to profit through the market being suddenly glutted with poultry and eggs when the quarantine is raised.

It may be said to the credit of Rush county poultrymen that they have acted wisely and have shown splendid judgment in doing their part in the effort that is being made to save the poultry industry for Rush county.

Likewise, poultry raisers deserve credit for not attempting to violate the quarantine by attempting to sell chickens or eggs.

Sounded good to Smith, and he went expected. But Smith didn't care.Ten days in the stoke-hole and then Southampton. With money in his pocket and adventure in his hear-

"Kaintuck." And "Kaintuck" who had been reared in a bone-dry coun-for the first time in his life, tasted beer and "this here Scotch."Sure, it had its effect and it's no wonder that a short time later he was on a train with his mates, bound for London.More visits to liquor places—and then "Kaintuck" lost his friends in a fog.

The wee hours found "Kaintuck" leaning up against a fence.

Inside the fence stood a statue.

"Kaintuck" glanced up at it. Then he stared—and blinked.

"Ole Abe Lincoln?"

"Kaintuck's" thoughts went into a whirl. A trip across the Atlantic?

In a London town? Maybe a dream.

A London Bobbie came along.

"What's that building?" asked

"Kaintuck."

"That's where Parliament meets," came the reply.

THE DAY BEFORE

There goes that old line again, but that's just what it is—the day before another one of those "battles of the century"—you know we have at least two of 'em a year. Then roar! Lions 'll be here tomorrow night and from the snarling we hear over Rushville way, they're coming to chew us up. That isn't so good, but they'll try to do that very little thing, figuratively speakin'. Now we don't know for sure whether that's the right word or not, that figuratively stuff, but what we mean to say is they're goin' to do their damndest to put over a win. Of course we can't blame 'em and on the other hand they can't blame us if we try to do the same stunt.

Now that that's off our chest we'll start to hand out the old dope about the big tilt of the season from the point of interest or sentiment, at least.

STILL WHISTLIN'

Now, according to Hittin' 'em of the Rushville Republican, there's not much interest in Rushville over the game, it being taken for granted that the Lions will win. That's some more of that whistlin' in the graveyard stuff, if you ask us. Lots of interest over there all right, even if they don't show it and we'll miss our guess if they don't send a rip-roarin' delegation over here to try and help the Lions win.

There we go again, knowing to long paragraphs, and we run very well that they don't look good in a column. Hence this short one.

BIG "HOP" TOO

Before we go any further—and this ought to interest the Rushville folks—the Phi Delt's are giving a dance in their club rooms immediately after the big game. $1.10 pays the way and it'll be worth the price. The Auditorium orchestra and those boys sure put up the stuff, will furnish the inspiration for the tripping of the light fantastic, as they used to say years ago. Come one, come all.

NOW IS THE TIME TO JOIN THE BOOSTERS

NOTHING ELSE EXCEPT

And speakin' of boosters they're a live wire bunch we'll tell the world. That Franklin trip on four special I. & C. cars looks like a sure go as this is being written. With 200 rooters and a band, oh boy won't we strut our stuff at Franklin?

Have Your Tickets Ready!

Can't keep away from that Rushville game, though, and we'll promise not to tell you this again, but they're gonna enforce the ticket rule to the letter tomorrow night. Rushville fans will use the north door and local fans will use the other doors and they must show their tickets. That may sound like it's too strict, but they're figuring on a real crowd and goodness knows basketball crowds are hard to handle.

NOT QUITE THAT OFTEN

A weekly occurrence: Rushville and Connersville are to have another "battle of the century" soon—Speakin' of Sports, Washington Herald.

Do You Remember?

Laying all jokes to I side as Ring Lardner would say, we can just about call 'em battles of the century at that. Member way back in the palmy days, guess that word's all right. anyway we mean back when "Jim" Geraghty run the baseball team in the Rush county metropolis and Jot Gear was the star twirler for the Connersville Grays they had some real battles and they've come down through the years.

AIN'T THIS SO?

Say one thing though without fear of contradiction and that is that there's a better feeling between the two towns now. Wouldn't want a nicer game: than we had over at Push-town when the Spartans were trimmed earlier in the season and everybody kept in a good humor.

HARD TO LOSE, ETC., ETC BUT WHAT'S A LITTLE BASKETBALL GAME AFTER ALL IF THE SPORTSMANSHIP IS THERE?

WE'RE OUT TO WIN

Understand now Hittin' 'em we're not trying to crawl or anything of the sort for we're over here still calling for the ole fight and everything it takes to win and with anything like the breaks we're gonna send the Lions back to their own den on the short end of the score and we don't mean it.

MORE OLD TIME STUFF

This is not basketball but you might count it in order for we recalled the early days a paragraph or two previous, but do you remember when the baseball players rode out to the ball park on the old fashioned omnibus and the kids would be lined up at the gate waiting to get to carry a glove or bat or anything else that would give 'em free admission. "Them days have gone forever."

AND IT'LL BE FRIDAY THE THIRTEENTH. BELIEVE WE USED THAT ONCE BEFORE BUT SAY THAT'S SOMETHING TO FALL BACK UPON. 'EH HITTIN' 'EM.

THEY'LL ALL BE HERE

From the way they're talkin' there'll be a record crowd on hands when the teams trot out on the floor. One thing sure we're not cramped for space like we used to be down in the old rink and it's a safe bet that all the Rushvillians will be taken care of in good shape.

Mustn't overlook that certain raider either. Strictly Rushville-Connersville affair tomorrow night, with the Junior Spartans tackling the Lion Cubs in the opener. Get there early and see it all.

CHANGING THE PACE

We'll lay off Rushville stuff for a while now and give some of the dope about the other fellows. That would be called a change of pace in baseball slang. Anyway let's mix 'em up a little and maybe, who knows we'll find out something.

HAVE RIGHT TO CROW

They're still crowing down at Washington about that scare they gave Vincennes and the columnists have had it soft for the last two or three days printing what the other fellows said about that 41 to 40 score. Well the Hatchets did do a nice job of it and we still say that breaks figure. The Aliens must have got 'em judging from the accounts of the game.

NO TWO-TIMIN' GOES

Got to call off that idea of clipping some dope from the other exchanges. You know this column's running in the Rushville paper today and Hittin' 'em might clip the same thing I do and you'd have to read it twice.

Anyway a contributor just kicked in with some good dope about Rushville and we're gonna hand it to you hot off the wires, so to speak. Here goes:

SO SAY WE ALL

Let's make it a twin win this week-end. We didn't quite do it before but oh boy didn't we come close and what a thrill we gave Newcastle—even with Keller out of the game. RUIN RUSHVILLE and FRUSTRATE FRANKLIN.

TAIL LIGHTS

They're There, Ole Top That name Tail Lights ought to sound familiar Hittin' 'em. And we're telling you that the Tail

Lights over here are always behind the Spartans boostin' them to the limit.

WHOM DO YOU LIKE?

The Guy we like Is One who chimes The ole fight and We'll Tame Them Lions'. —G. G.

Here They Are Again

Can't keep those Tail Lights down. Here they come with another one. Listen to this: And now comes the greatest game of the season or "battle of the century" as E. I. says. We have waited all season for it, but the good things always come last. We can assure the fans that this game will be the best in a couple of years between Rushville and Connersville as Rushville has better opposition to offer than heretofore.

Well we might as well tell you what we think of the game and what we're gonna do. We can win this game with lots of fight and we're gonna win it. For we sure have got that old fight, gang and whatever it takes to put the old fight over we've got.

Come on fans, and we know you will, yell like you've never yelled before. Show Rushville how many red blooded fans Connersville has. Make 'em sit up and look on. Show 'em what a real fight is, Sparans. Remember Richmond beat 'em. Keep thinking about a win and we'll ruin Rushville.

Some little package if you ask us. Lots of the ole pep and everything in it too. Keep it up Tail Lights.

They'll Need Lots of Time

One more and we'll get ready to close up shop for today. Yes it's from the Tail Lights, for they're sure bearing down on this Rushville game—Listen: Just before that district tourney the Rushville paper told how the Lions' coach was training his lions for 15 minutes halves. The way it looked he must have cut a little short. Wonder if they think we're playing 15 minutes halves Friday night.

TAIL LIGHTS.

Real Job We'll Say

Now before we close we're gonna drop in a little dope about Franklin. We've tried hard to stick to Rushville stuff, but those Blue Devils keep popping up in our minds and win o' lose Friday night we've got a real job on our hands Saturday night and we'll be away from home. Franklin's not to be sneezed at any where and it'll take the ole fight all the way. Let's get it now and keep it all the way through and give those Spartans the support they deserve.

ALL ABOARD!

And from what they tell us that special car stunt's goin' over big with a band and everything. That's purty punk we think and expect you do to, but it sure does help a lot to have a big crowd on hand rootin'. Ed Spartans?

Knew we'd exceed the space limit again, but we'll try and talk the "works" of the back room out of it and slip in a few more about Rushville.

Waddy Say Hittin' 'Em

We're telling the big flat world though Hittin' 'em that it's easier to talk about writing a column than it's gonna appear in another paper than it is to write it.

But we guess we pulled it off and maybe they'll get a kick or two out of them. Here's hopin'.

Back home again now, folks, and we're just about ready to end the agony and pull the usual getaway lines. We know you're all familiar with 'em but we are ready to dodge anything you choose to throw, so the ole fight, gang, got your ticket to Franklin? join the boosters; don't forget to boost that grade tourney as we go along; did we forget anything? If so we'll tell you about it tomorrow. In the meantime keep thinking about—

"TAMING THEM LIONS"

P. S.—Oh yes, then FINISH or FRUSTRATE FRANKLIN.

OH BOY, WHAT A ROAD THE LIONS HAVE TODAY! ALL PEP, UP, READY FOR THAT BIG FIGHT OVER AT C'VILLE FRIDAY NIGHT. JUST THE PREY THEY HAVE BEEN WAITIN' FOR.

Coach Swain reported today that all players are anxious to hit the pace. Newbold, star forward, who was out of school two days on account of swollen glands, didn't develop the mumps, thank goodness! Light practice on goal shooting will be held tonight. New plays have been worked out, and several surprises have been developed.

Ticket sale took a boost Wednesday. Indications are that the section reserved for Rushville will be well filled Friday night. Rushville fans are requested to remember that the north door is the entrance.

Maybe the end of the world was postponed for a week? If no doubt will be the end for someone.

WOTHER SURPRISE

Hoosier Courtship in the Richmond Palladium says: "Watch for Feb. 21. Something big on that date." Perhaps they are figuring on beating Connersville the night before.

SOMETHING THAT DIDN'T WORRY US:

All banks were closed today. Abe had a birthday.

MAIL 'EM TO HITTIN' 'EM.

THE WEATHER REPORT

For Eastern Indiana, Friday: regular March temperatures will prevail, exceptionally stormy. Ideal conditions for Roarin' Lions.

Friday the thirteenth is Hittin' 'em's lucky day! Got married on the 13th—and haven't lost a battle yet!

Headline in Shelbyville paper says CAMELS MAKE EFFORT TO REGAIN PRESTIGE. Webster says Prestige is an illusion, and an illusion is a false show. That's the first time we have ever found the truth in a Shelby paper.

Now Greensburg ought to enjoy the above. Yesterday we slapped Greensburg because they said some mighty bad things about those Tin Camels, and so that's what you call Hittin' 'em and Missin' 'em.

A REGULAR ROMEO

Franklin Miller, the war horse at back guard for the Lions, has McIntyre or Heath backed clear off the map. He not only is a basketball player, but he is a real actor, and demonstrated his ability this week in the Senior class play. All of those nice kisses he got from those girls, he ought to toss in four or five long goals tomorrow night.

McNamara is a real usher. He never missed a shot!

"Wolf" still stalks—headline in newspaper. Probably it is, TLW, broadcasting from C'ville.

Anderson high has won 15 straight games. Wonder who will be, sweet sixteen Friday?

Side Lights of C'ville says that the usual "bear stories" are coming from Rushville that the team's in a slump and everything else is wrong. When those Lions hit over there, won't he think it is a slump?

Wother Libel Suit Being Prepared

Down at Lyons, Ind., some place near Washington, they are calling their team, the roaring lions. They better make themselves scarce down that way next year when Rushville plays at Washington.

SOMETHING ELSE TO WORRY ABOUT

Paper down at Seymour has headline, "Saturday last day to escape atrocities." Just a reminder to get Lizzie a new license.

YES, WHEN WAS IT?

Down at Shelbyville they have unearthed piles of cross-ties from the middle of Broadway street, which used to be a railroad. Probably they will find the basketball with which they won the state tournament, if they keep on looking.

Those cross ties will make good bon-fires for future celebrations, won't they Shelby? Stack 'em up on the public square. If you can't use 'em this year, they will burn good next year.

Won't those Connersville players be surprised when they see Rushville's new line-up of players. It's another one of those deep secrets, and so you will have to go to find out about it.

ALMOST FORGOT THE SLOGAN TODAY: NIK THOSE IKMIKS

And Side Lights says: Tame them Lions!

WOMAN FAINTED AT POINT OF GUN

Says a headline in Anderson Bulletin. It is generally the sound of that bloom'n gun at the end of the game that gives us heart failure.

Mike Arbuckle is a snappy player. Won't it look funny to see him play back guard? Well, you can't always tell.

SAFETY SAM SAYS:

'Shootin' 'em in the News makes his pick on Monday. Uneasy lies the head of the team he picks. Remember it was Anderson last year?

OUR ANIMAS CLUB

Side Lights of Connersville told Hittin' 'em that Connersville was going to win, and if they didn't win, you would find him down in Kentucky locked inside of a cave.

Toss 'em in with field goals. They count two points.

Make the foul goals good. They count one point.

No quarantine on foul goals, but all other fowls had better stay home. Save your eggs, also.

Let's NIK those Ikmiiks, and then QUARANTINE THEM!

GENERAL FIRE ALARM SOUNDED

A fire at the home of Edward T. O'Neil, 420 West Fifth street, was burning out Wednesday evening shortly after six o'clock, and for a time threatened to do damage. The flames were leaping high into the air.

The chemical truck from the fire station answered a telephone call, and shortly afterwards someone sounded the alarm from box 41, Sexton and Fifth streets, which caused the general fire alarm. On this alarm pumper company 2 made the run. The firemen remained at the residence until all danger of fire had passed, and no damage resulted.

NEARLY INSANE AT TIMES

Mrs. Saunders Tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Relieved Troubles of Change of Life

Knoxville, Tenn.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound while going through the Change of Life. I was very nervous, could not sleep and had melancholy spells. In fact, I was nearly insane at times and my memory was almost a blank. I was so weak I could not do my housework half of the time and suffered dreadfully with my back. My doctor said I would have to worry it out and I went through this for three years before I began taking the Vegetable Compound which I saw advertised. I think it was eight bottles that I took. It has been two years since I took any and I haven't had a doctor since for that trouble. I do all my washing and ironing and I have gained from 116 to 138 pounds. I feel so well I think I do not need any medicine now, but I advise all women who suffer physically and mentally as I did to give the Vegetable Compound a fair trial. I hope it will do as much for them as it did for me."—Mrs. T. A. SAUNDERS, 711 E. Depot Street, Knoxville, Tenn.

the egg. That is why the outside of a shell is contaminated. The inside or edible part of the egg is the life of the virus.

"We would urge everyone using eggs to burn the shells for ten days or two weeks. This reason for this is as follows:

"Sparrows are on nearly every farm. They fly from place to place in search of food. They could pick up a piece of egg shell contaminated with fowl pest a mile or more away and carry it back to your farm in their mouth, conclude they didn't want it and drop it on the ground. Your chickens would pick it up, eat it and they will have the fowl pest. For this reason we urge the burning of shells, and for this reason also, the embargo is placed on eggs."

Feet of Clay," Cecil B. DeMille's latest production for Paramount, which features Rod La Rocque, Vera Reynolds, Victor Varconi, Ricardo Cortez, Julia Faye, Theodore Kosloff and Robert Edeson, opened a two days' run at the Princess theatre yesterday. The story is an adaptation of the immensely popular magazine serial by that name by Margaretta Tuttle. Benah Marie Dix and Bertram Millhauser wrote the screen play.

Traveling in its locale between a brilliant winter resort, a poor Harlem flat and a gorgeous eye-filling home of wealth, "Feet of Clay" is one of the most entertaining productions DeMille has ever offered the picture public.

The story starts with a yachting party at Catalina Island. All sorts of beach novelties are worked into a series of colorful scenes which in costume combine bathing suits on lovely girls with the latest summer creations of the modiste and the tailor. The eye-filling piece de resistance is a race between twenty girls in jockey bathing suits on surfboards behind fast speedboats.

Capping the beach scenes is a luxurious sequence aboard the world's largest yacht.

Baby Peggy Coming to Castle

Is it wrong to scare a child with talk of the Bogey Man?

Parents seem to have a common habit of frightening their children into submission when threats and punishment fail to check childish naughtiness. It's "Johnny" if you aren't good a great big policeman will get you—or, "Peggy," come out of that pantry. I just saw a burglar in there—

There is talk of the Bogey man and other mystic individuals who are supposed to have a penchant for devouring bad little boys and girls.

Wiseacres who analyse the psychology of things say that it is wrong to distort the childish mind with such suggestions and threats. Often their effects is such that it takes many years to overcome the false teaching of immaturity. Few

Thousands who are troubled with persistent coughing at night, which by robbing them of valuable sleep weakens their systems and lays them open to dangerous infections, can quickly act to prevent this danger through a very simple treatment. People who have hardly been able to rest at all on account of coughing spells have found they can sleep the whole night through undisturbed often the first time they try it.

The treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful at night before retiring and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the mucus and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The result is you usually sleep soundly the very first night, and the entire cough condition goes in a very short time.

The prescription is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness, and bronchitis, and is wonderful for children's coughs and spasmodic croup—no harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 98.

By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

This is a condition of the stomach in which there is an alteration in the quantity or quality of the gastric juice and is accompanied by nervousness.

As a rule the onset is gradual and starts with distress in the region of the stomach, eructations of gas, pyrosis (heart burn), palpitation of the heart, constipation and coated tongue.

There may be severe stomach pains which in some cases are relieved by eating. There may be numbness of the extremities, coldness of the skin, flushes of the face and neck, and occasionally hiccup.

In some cases mental symptoms develop, such as: fear, of being alone, mental depression, worry over trivial matters, etc.

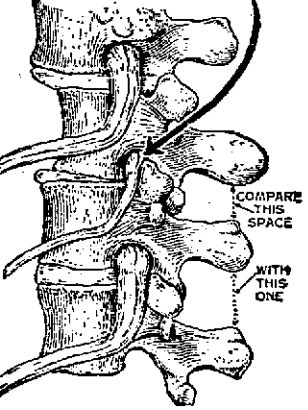

If allowed to run on the outlook is not good, but our Chiropractic Adjustments remove the pressure on the nerves leading to the stomach. The flow of gastric juice becomes normal, digestion is restored and all symptoms disappear.

Dieting Failed But Chiropractic Succeeds

"For several years my son suffered from headaches and an undernourished condition. Physicians thought this was due to auto-intoxication and said the only relief obtainable would be through dieting. Under their treatment his condition gradually became worse. Reading an advertisement of Chiropractic, I became interested and decided to give it a trial. Under adjustments my boy has become normal, has gained several pounds and makes his grades in school. Without Chiropractic adjustments I believe he would have died."

LINCOLN'S SYMPATHY

"White House Bride" Tells How It Led to Her Marriage

Anderson, Ind., Feb. 12—The only living woman who was given away as a bride by Abraham Lincoln, and who ate her wedding supper as his guest in the executive mansion.

Mrs. Elizabeth Chandler, 82, of this county seat town, proudly boasts that honor.

Her story portrays the big-heartedness, kindness and sympathy for others in the life of Lincoln.

"I was away back in 1862 that James Henry Chandler and his bride-to-be eloped from their homes near Mt. Sidney, Va., and went to Harper's Ferry to be married.

Trouble at this town prevented their entrance and they took the stage to Washington.

"We were just a couple of green Virginians," explains Mrs. Chandler "and we knew no better than to go to the White House to get married.

"We explained the situation to a doorman and he took us to the president's office.

"What do you children want?" Lincoln asked us. We told him and he sent for a Baptist minister. After the ceremony President Lincoln laughingly called my attention to the fact that it was customary for the minister to kiss the bride. The minister did!

"I was rather hoping the president would, too. But he didn't!

"After the wedding Lincoln insisted we stay all night. I was taken to one room and my husband to another.

"In a short time we discovered that a party was scheduled for the White House that evening and when the guests arrived news of our wedding spread.

"They served a midnight supper in our honor."

In the early part of the war Chandler joined the southern forces.

In a short time, however, he surrendered and asked permission to fight in Lincoln's army.

This was granted and Mrs. Chandler did not hear from him for five years. The sentiment against a man who dared fight against his own family eventually died down and he returned home.

His "White House" bride was waiting for him.

MRS. ELIZABETH CHANDLER

The Chandlers moved to Indiana soon after and reared a family of four.

Chandler died some 25 years ago and his widow is supported by a government pension.

In the pension record is found what probably is the only official record of the Chandler wedding in the White House.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Myers and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norris attended the funeral of George Myers of Cleveland, Ohio, which was held in Indianapolis Monday.

William Wilkinson, who was seriously ill last week at the home of his cousin in Liberty with appendicitis, is much improved.

Richard Norris is ill with the mumps this week.

The Rev. D. E. Walker of Rushville was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morris Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Inlow of

Manilla visited Mr. and Mrs. John Dewester Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morris and family attended the play at Orange Saturday night.

Dr. Fred Catt is busy in Noble township inspecting the poultry flocks, but thus far has not found any cases of the fowl pest.

Miss Florence York entertained the Girl's Circle at her home Saturday afternoon. The program was in charge of Miss Mary Heaton. After the program light refreshments were served.

The Mission Band met in the church basement Sunday morning in charge of Mrs. Laverne Dunn and Mrs. John Murphy.

The Rev. Mr. Law of the Orange Christian church, together with Coleman Phillips, Roland and Lowell Krammes, met the officers of the Christian Endeavor society of this place at the church Sunday afternoon. The purpose of the meeting was to formulate plans toward organizing a Young People's Union of the Endeavor and Epworth League societies of the neighboring churches.

There are only four at present, Laurel, Orange Glenwood and Little Flat Rock, but it is hoped that other churches will join in the near future. It is to this end and also to promote Christian fellowship, love and service, a spirit of neighborliness, between the societies, that the union is being advocated. If successful, which it is hoped it will be, there will be two conferences a year, one in the spring and one in the fall, at which time there will be state workers in attendance whose messages will give inspiration, help and a larger vision of increased usefulness in the lives of the young people.

Alton Wilson was very pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when about forty of his friends gathered at his home, south of New Salem, honoring his eighteenth birthday. The evening was spent in contests and playing games after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Wilson was assisted by the Misses Thelma Williams and Esther Geise as hostesses.

The Ladies of St. Paul's M. E. church will hold a rummage sale Saturday at the Ford building in West First street. The sale will begin at 8 a. m.
